Description: General Motors has decided that certain 2021 model year GMC Yukon and Yukon XL vehicles, Chevrolet Tahoe and Suburban vehicles, and Cadillac Escalade and Escalade ESV vehicles fail to conform, in part, to S7.10.5 of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (F/CMVSS) No. 108, Lamps, reflective devices, and associated equipment. The daytime running lamps (DRLs) may not deactivate when the headlamps are on, as required by S7.10.5, Table I-a. of F/CMVSS 108.

If the DRLs do not deactivate when the headlamps are on, the resulting glare could increase the risk of a crash.

Remedy: General Motors will update the software in the vehicles Body Control Module (BCM) to correct the condition.

Glossary

Commercial

Vehicle was registered for business purposes.

First Owner

When the first owner(s) obtains a title from a Department of Motor Vehicles as proof of ownership.

Manufacturer Recall

Automobile manufacturers issue recall notices to inform vehicle owners of a safety defect or failure to meet minimum federal safety or emissions standards. Manufacturer recalls are repaired at no cost to the customer.

Ownership History

CARFAX defines an owner as an individual or business that possesses and uses a vehicle. Not all title transactions represent changes in ownership. To provide estimated number of owners, CARFAX proprietary technology analyzes all the events in a vehicle history. Estimated ownership is available for vehicles manufactured after 1991 and titled solely in the US including Puerto Rico. Dealers sometimes opt to take ownership of a vehicle and are required to in the following states: Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and South Dakota. Please consider this as you review a vehicle's estimated ownership history.

Title Issued

A state issues a title to provide a vehicle owner with proof of ownership. Each title has a unique number. Each title or registration record on a CARFAX report does not necessarily indicate a change in ownership. In Canada, a registration and bill of sale are used as proof of ownership.
